INSTRUCTIONS

The filing of a bankruptcy case creates an “estate” under the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court which consists of all of the property of the debtor, wherever that property is located. Because the bankruptcy estate is so extensive and the jurisdiction of the court so broad, there may be lawsuits over the property or property rights of the estate. There also may be lawsuits concerning the debtor’s discharge. If such a lawsuit is filed in a bankruptcy court, it is called an adversary proceeding.

A party filing an adversary proceeding must also must complete and file Form 1040, the Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet, unless the party files the adversary proceeding electronically through the court’s Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF). (CM/ECF captures the information on Form 1040 as part of the filing process.) When completed, the cover sheet summarizes basic information on the adversary proceeding. The clerk of court needs the information to process the adversary proceeding and prepare required statistical reports on court activity.

The cover sheet and the information contained on it do not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law, the Bankruptcy Rules, or the local rules of court. The cover sheet, which is largely self-explanatory, must be completed by the plaintiff’s attorney (or by the plaintiff if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney). A separate cover sheet must be submitted to the clerk for each complaint filed.

Plaintiffs and Defendants. Give the names of the plaintiffs and defendants exactly as they appear on the complaint.

Attorneys. Give the names and addresses of the attorneys, if known.

Party. Check the most appropriate box in the first column for the plaintiffs and the second column for the defendants.

Demand. Enter the dollar amount being demanded in the complaint.

Signature. This cover sheet must be signed by the attorney of record in the box on the second page of the form. If the plaintiff is represented by a law firm, a member of the firm must sign. If the plaintiff is pro se, that is, not represented by an attorney, the plaintiff must sign.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. This lawsuit concerns a fraudulent scheme to entice Plaintiff into investing $45,000.00 in a property located at 49 Monona Avenue, Rutherford, New Jersey 07070 ("Monona Property") and held in the name of a joint venture known as 49 Monona Avenue LLC with terms of repayment in full on the maturity date of July 15, 2018 plus interest of 14% per annum upon default. The scheme also involved a joint venture agreement through which Plaintiff would receive an additional $11,250.00 above her initial investment of $45,000.00.

2. On or about December 9, 2017, Plaintiff loaned Defendant and his partner, Paul Carpio ("Carpio"), the amount of $45,000.00 by way of a Promissory Note ("Note") executed by Defendant and Carpio as personal guarantors and on behalf of 49 Monona Avenue LLC, with terms of repayment in full on the maturity date of July 15, 2018.

3. On or about December 11, 2017, Defendant and Carpio personally guaranteed and executed a Joint Venture Agreement ("Agreement") with Plaintiff through which they would pay Plaintiff an additional $11,250.00 above her initial investment of $45,000.00.

4. The terms of payment on the Note and Agreement obligated Defendant and Carpio to pay Plaintiff the amounts of $45,000.00 and $11,250.00, respectively, no later than July 15, 2018, upon the sale and at the closing transfer of title to the Monona Property and registered in the name of 49 Monona Avenue LLC.

5. Pursuant to the Note, in the event of a default occurring on July 18, 2018, Defendant and Carpio would be obligated to pay Plaintiff interest on the $45,000.00 at the rate of 14% per annum.

6. On or about July 27, 2018 - twelve (12) days after Defendant and Carpio were obligated to pay Plaintiff pursuant to the Note and Agreement - Defendant and Carpio, without any notice to Plaintiff, changed the name of 49 Monona Avenue LLC to ABL One LLC with the registered address of 66 Hudson Street #301, City of Hoboken, County of Hudson, State of New Jersey 07030.

7. On or about July 11, 2019, just five days less than one year after Defendant and Carpio were obligated to pay Plaintiff pursuant to the terms of the Note and Agreement, ABL One LLC transferred title and sold the Monona Property to a third party without paying Plaintiff.

8. Plaintiff put both Defendant and Carpio on written notice of default.

9. On or about November 11, 2019, Plaintiff filed a Verified Complaint in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division: Hudson County, Docket No.: HUD-L-4256-19 against Defendant and Carpio for taking Plaintiff's money which they used to improve the value of a parcel of real estate that they later sold and enjoyed enhanced proceeds of sale without paying Plaintiff pursuant to the Note and Agreement.

10. On or about December 24, 2019, Defendant and Carpio filed an Answer.

11. The matter was subsequently assigned to arbitration.

12. On or about August 12, 2020, the Report and Award of Arbitration in the amount of $125,000.00 (“Award of Arbitration”) was entered against Defendant and Carpio, jointly and severally, and recorded on the state court docket.

13. On November 19, 2020, Defendant filed the above-referenced, no-asset, Chapter 7 bankruptcy.

14. On or about January 4, 2021, the state court judge entered “an Order pursuant to Confirm [sic] the Arbitration Award and Enter Judgment jointly and severally against Defendants, Paul Carpio and Derik Palmieri ...” in favor of Plaintiff in the amount of $125,000.00. The judge further ordered, “that a mirror Judgment against Defendant Derik Palmieri is reserved for entry by virtue of his filing for Chapter 7 Bankruptcy on November 19, 2020 after the original filing date of Plaintiff’s [complaint] ...”

15. WHEREFORE, based upon the foregoing facts forming the basis of violations for each theory in this Complaint, Plaintiff demands a judgment enforcing the Award of Arbitration against Defendant in the amount of $125,000.00 plus post-judgment interest, attorney’s fees, and costs, and any and all other relief this Court deems reasonable and necessary.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
NONDISCHARGEABILITY OF DEBT UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A)

16. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and embodies herein by this reference paragraphs 1-15 above, as if fully set forth herein.

17. Plaintiff alleges that the claims for relief arising from the actions and omissions of Defendant as set forth herein, are non-dischargeable pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 523(a)(2)(A), in that they establish claims for money “obtained by false pretenses, false representations, or actual fraud, other than a statement respecting the debtor’s or an insider’s financial condition.” Upon information and belief, such actions/omissions were undertaken in furtherance of a fraudulent financial scheme to deprive the Plaintiff and others of their money through false promises, fraudulent inducements, deception, and actual fraud, which caused the Plaintiff to deposit her money with Defendant and Defendant's alter ego, 49 Monona Avenue LLC.

18. Defendant induced Plaintiff to enter into the Note and Agreement by representing that:

- a. Defendant is a real estate agent licensed in the State of New Jersey.
- b. Defendant was an owner and principle of 49 Monona Avenue LLC.
- c. Plaintiff would receive a 10% interest in 49 Monona Avenue LLC.
- d. That Plaintiff would receive $45,000.00 plus $11,250.00, respectively, no later than July 15, 2018, upon the sale and at the closing transfer of title to the real estate registered in the name of 49 Monona Avenue LLC.
- e. That pursuant to the Note, in the event of a default occurring on July 18, 2018, Defendant would be obligated to pay Plaintiff interest on the $45,000.00 at the rate of 14% per annum.
- f. At all times, the Defendant knowingly withheld information from Plaintiff regarding his intent to change the name of the holding company from 49 Monona Avenue LLC to ABL One LLC and the subsequent sale of the Monona property to a third party with the intent to interfere with Plaintiff's right to receive proceeds.

19. As a result of Defendant's representations Plaintiff paid Defendant $45,000.00 and was guaranteed payment in full plus an additional $11,250.00 pursuant to the Note and Agreement.

20. Defendant's representations were all false.

21. As a result of Defendant's actions and omissions identified herein, he has received a benefit from Plaintiff in excess of $125,000.00 plus interest, based upon false pretenses, false representations, and actual fraud, other than a statement respecting his or any insider's financial condition.

22. As a result of such actions/omissions, Plaintiff has accordingly been damaged by Defendant in an amount in excess of $125,000.00 plus interest, costs and attorneys' fees which continue to accrue. Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment enforcing the Award of Arbitration against Defendant in the amount of $125,000.00 plus post-judgment interest, attorney's fees, and costs, and any and all other relief this Court deems reasonable and necessary.

23. Accordingly, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), the above-described claims for relief are non-dischargeable.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
NONDISCHARGEABILITY OF DEBT UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 523(A)(4)

24. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and embodies herein by this reference paragraphs 1-23 above, as if fully set forth herein.

25. Plaintiff alleges that the claims for relief arising from the actions and omissions of Defendant, as set forth herein, are non-dischargeable pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 523(a)(4) in that they establish a claim for "fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, embezzlement, or larceny." Upon information and belief, and as set forth above, Defendant undertook the fraudulent actions/omissions described herein while acting in a fiduciary capacity for the Plaintiff, and such actions/omissions were undertaken in furtherance of a fraudulent financial scheme to permanently deprive the Plaintiff and others of their money. Defendant embezzled and stole the entrusted monies from the Plaintiff.

26. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant engaged in soliciting funds from the general public for the purpose of investing in multiple real estate projects for the sole purpose of his personal enrichment and the detriment of multiple investors and would show similar fact patterns in the following cases:

- a. Garcia & Bueno vs. Carpio, Palmieri and JC Bowers Tower, LLC, filed in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division: Hudson County, Docket No.: HUD-L-1086-18 on March 19, 2018; Judgment entered against Defendant and Carpio on May 18, 2018.
- b. Buldo vs. Carpio & Palmieri, 256 Feronia Way, LLC, Jersey City Bowers Towers, LLC, filed in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division: Bergen County, Docket No.: BER-L-7750-18 on October 26, 2018, Judgment entered against Defendant and Carpio on December 1, 2020.
- c. Casares vs. 15 Palm St. Hillsdale, LLC, Carpio and Palmieri, filed in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division: Hudson County, Docket No.: HUD-L-944-19 on March 6, 2019; Arbitration Award entered against Defendant and Carpio on July 8, 2020; Settled October 22, 2020.
- d. Seiden vs. Carpio & Palmieri, filed in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division: Union County, Docket No.: UNN-L-3338-19 on September 24, 2019; Judgment entered against Defendant and Carpio on January 30, 2020.

27. Defendant is a realtor licensed in the state of New Jersey and owes Plaintiff a fiduciary duty, which she relied upon in entering into the Note and Agreement.

28. Defendant owed Plaintiff a fiduciary duty as a licensed realtor to honor the Note and Agreements.

29. As a result of Defendant's actions and omissions identified herein, he has received a benefit from the Plaintiff in excess of $125,000.00, through his role as the Plaintiffs' partner, fiduciary and through fraud, defalcation, embezzlement, and larceny.

30. As a result of such actions/omissions, the Plaintiff has accordingly been damaged in an amount in excess of $125,000.00 plus interest, costs and attorneys' fees which continue to accrue. Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment enforcing the Award of Arbitration against Defendant in the amount of $125,000.00 plus post-judgment interest, attorney's fees, and costs, and any and all other relief this Court deems reasonable and necessary.

31. Accordingly, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(4), the above-described claims for relief are non-dischargeable.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
NONDISCHARGEABILITY OF DEBT UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(6)

32. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and embodies herein by this reference paragraphs 1 - 31 above, as if fully set forth herein.

33. Plaintiff alleges that the claims for relief arising from the actions and omissions of Defendant, as set forth herein, are non-dischargeable pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 523(a)(6) in that it reflects "willful and malicious injury by the debtor to another entity or the property of another entity." Upon information and belief, such actions/omissions were undertaken in furtherance of a fraudulent financial scheme to deprive the Plaintiffs and others of their money through false promises, fraudulent inducements, deception, and actual fraud, which caused the Plaintiffs to deposit their money with Defendant and Defendant's alter ego, 49 Monona Avenue LLC.

34. On or about July 27, 2018 - twelve (12) days after Defendant was obligated to pay Plaintiff pursuant to the Note and Agreement - Defendant, without any notice to Plaintiff, changed the name of 49 Monona Avenue LLC to ABL One LLC with the registered address of 66 Hudson Street #301, City of Hoboken, County of Hudson, State of New Jersey 07030.

35. On or about July 11, 2019, just five days less than one year after Defendant was obligated to pay Plaintiff pursuant to the terms of the Note and Agreement, ABL One LLC transferred title and sold the property located at 49 Monona Avenue, Rutherford, New Jersey 07070 to a third party without paying Plaintiff.

36. Each of the actions/omissions of Defendant set forth herein were undertaken in furtherance of a fraudulent financial scheme by Defendant with the intent to permanently deprive the Plaintiff of her monies.

37. As a result of such actions/omissions, the Plaintiff has accordingly been damaged in an amount in excess of $125,000.00, plus interest, costs and attorneys' fees which continue to accrue. Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment enforcing the Award of Arbitration against Defendant in the amount of $125,000.00 plus post-judgment interest, attorney's fees, and costs, and any and all other relief this Court deems reasonable and necessary.

38. Accordingly, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(6), the above-described claims for relief are non-dischargeable.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
NONDISCHARGEABILITY OF DEBT UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 727(A)(4)

39. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and embodies herein by this reference paragraphs 1 - 38 above, as if fully set forth herein.

40. Defendant knowingly and fraudulently obtained money from Plaintiff, specifically, a promissory note and joint venture investment. Defendant requested the promissory note and joint venture investment from Plaintiff knowing that Defendant would not pay them back. Plaintiff paid these amounts in reliance on the Defendant's representations that the loan would be paid back in full and the other monies would be invested in real properties. Plaintiff was ignorant of the fact that Defendant intended to convert the promissory note and joint venture investment to his own use.

41. As a result of such actions/omissions, the Plaintiff has accordingly been damaged in an amount in excess of $125,000.00, plus interest, costs and attorneys' fees which continue to accrue. Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment enforcing the Award of Arbitration against Defendant in the amount of $125,000.00 plus post-judgment interest, attorney's fees, and costs, and any and all other relief this Court deems reasonable and necessary.

42. Such conduct violates 11 U.S.C. § 727(a)(4) and, therefore, the Debtor's discharge is properly denied.
